Webinar Title – Accessing Care during the Coronavirus Crisis

When – Monday 30th March 11am until 12pm

Description – This webinar is focused on accessing care during the Coronavirus Crisis. With the onset of new emergency coronavirus legislation, "The Coronavirus Bill 2019-21".

Steve Broach will give information on this legislation and take questions on how to access care during this time.

Steve Broach is a barrister at 39 Essex Chambers in London. He has a wide-ranging public law practice with a particular focus on the law and policy affecting children and disabled people.

Who is this webinar for: anyone concerned about accessing care in the current climate. If you want to ask questions in advance or have someone support you to do this please email them to admin@be-human.org.uk and will collate these for the webinar.

You can type questions live on the webinar and Steve will take as many as possible in the timescale. Please keep your questions short and general – Steve is not able to give case specific advice during the webinar. If you need case specific legal advice see https://rightsinreality.wordpress.com/2014/09/13/solicitors-with-expertise-in-disability-and-sen-cases/

We will try to theme questions so we have a range of the issues of concerns. We will also record and make the recording public on www.be-human.org.uk
