

Webinar Title – Lets talks about ‘How I manage my direct payment’

Description – This webinar will be focusing on people who have a direct payment or want one and how they might manage it.

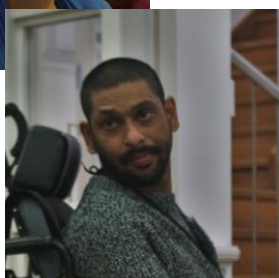

Many people have said they would find it really useful to hear how others manage their Direct Payment and their relationship with the council or CCG and want to connect with others who manage their Direct Payments. In this webinar we will hear from people who have personal budgets and personal health budgets via a Direct Payment and the different ways they manage their own support. The webinar will run for 1.5hours.

Miro Griffiths is recognised for specialising and having a keen interest in disabled people’s empowerment and participation, transitional stages of a disabled persons life, and the independent living debate. He manages his own personal health budget through a direct payment.

Karen Saville keeps living an ordinary life in sometime extra ordinary circumstances. Both her and her husband Gavin have worked in statutory services and now Gavin receives support of a personal health budget via a direct payment.

Monzur Miah & Sue Bott: Monzur Miah has a direct payment and manages this with support from a local organisation and a circle of support. He advocates for disabled rights and retains his independent living. Sue Bott is the chair of Monzur’s circle of support.

Lisa Watchorn – Lisa manages her adult son's direct payments which previously included an education budget alongside health and social care. She is a valued graduate and speaker of Partners in policymaking and now works for Learning Disability England.

Who is this webinar for: anyone who has or is thinking about a Direct Payment

If you want to ask questions in advance or have someone support you to do this please email them to admin@in-control.co.uk and we will collate these for the webinar. You can type questions live on the webinar and speakers will take as many as possible in the timescale. Please keep your questions short and general – We may not be able to give case specific advice during the webinar. If you need case specific advice contact admin@be-human.org.uk

We will try to theme questions so we have a range of the issues of concerns. We will also record and make the recording public on www.be-human.org.uk
