

Webinar Title – 10 months into the pandemic.... how are we doing?

- an open conversation about the longer terms effects of living through the pandemic and what might help

Description – This webinar is for people who want to check in and find out how people are doing 10 months into the pandemic. We hope to bring some helpful solutions or identify what would be useful going forward.

Many people have said they would find it really useful to hear how others are surviving. In this webinar we will hear from people talking about what is on their mind right now, 10 months in

The webinar will run for 1 to 1.5hours.

Potential speakers/presenters

Miro Griffiths is recognised for specialising and having a keen interest in disabled people's empowerment and participation, transitional stages of a disabled persons life, and the independent living debate. He manages his own personal health budget through a direct payment.

Lisa Watchorn manages her adult son's direct payments which previously included an education budget alongside health and social care. She is a valued graduate and speaker of Partners in policymaking and now works for Learning Disability England.

Donna Pryke is a volunteer for social Care Futures. She lives with 24/7 support and is passionate about being able to live a good life and support others to do the same. She wants change!

Who is this webinar for: anyone who wants to check in and discuss how things are going 10 months in.

If you want to ask questions in advance or have someone support you to do this please email them to admin@in-control.co.uk and we will collate these for the webinar. You can type questions live on the webinar and speakers will take as many as possible in the timescale. Please keep your questions short and general – We may not be able to give case specific advice during the webinar. If you need case specific advice contact admin@be-human.org.uk

We will try to theme questions so we have a range of the issues of concerns. We will also record and make the recording public on www.be-human.org.uk
